

GGM NEWSLETTER AUG 2022

Hello everyone, we hope this newsletter finds you well and growing in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. It has been a full eight months of ministry here at Gospel of God with no slowing down in the last four months of the year. I am currently reading through the book of Proverbs and came across this proverb that reminded me of why Gospel of God Ministries exists. The fear of man brings a snare, But he who trusts in the Lord will be exalted. (Proverbs 29:25) We long to help Christians overcome their fear of man and learn to trust the Lord as they are faithful to share His amazing Gospel with the lost world.

We hope that everything we do here at the ministry will shape and motivate Christians to share their faith while supporting their local church. In this newsletter, you will get a harvest field report to see the faithfulness of the Holy Spirit to use our leaders as they witness in their corners of the harvest field. You will also hear about my travels this year to help shape Christians to be equipped to share their faith in Jesus. I will briefly update you on the family and where I will be traveling for the rest of the year. The new curriculum I have written, called Know Your Bible, will be on our website soon. I will give a little more detail about what is in it.

A big thank you to our monthly champion partners and donors that make these newsletters possible and allow us to stay out in the harvest field with our hands on the plow for our great Savior and King – Jesus. Do you want to become a monthly partner?

Our Time In Upstate New York

Funny times with the girls

I took the family along for ministry this summer. We took some time to enjoy the mountains of upstate New York with Melanie's aunt and uncle, Mike and Laurie Angerman. It was a joy to take in the beauty of God's creation as we adventured on the trails cut through the mountains. Mike and Laurie took us to have some of the amazing local food. We ended every night around the fire, roasting marshmallows, talking, and catching up. It is so lovely to know so much of the body of Christ all over the world. We are thankful to have you all in our lives and our ministry.

Melanie and I also got a chance to take the girls into New York city again. We walked through Central Park and onto the Brooklyn Bridge. We had to grab Elizabeth a pair of cheap sunglasses because she had lost hers. The girls love pizza, so we grabbed pizza in little Italy in the city. The nations have come to New York City. The girls say it is a little too busy and crowded for them.

Encouraging Johnny & Ana Santos NJ

Our first stop was Kearny, NJ, to encourage pastor Johnny Santos and his wife Ana of Christ Our Hope Church. Johnny is also one of our leaders here at the ministry. We spent three days with him and the church family of COH.

This church is being so faithful to the great commission. Even though they may be small in number, they are being devoted to our great Savior. I will be coming back next year to do training at Christ Our Hope Church, and then we will be heading into the city to share the Gospel with the people of New York City and New Jersey.

Training At The Hill Church In La Mesa, California

Taking Evangelism Serious

I had an opportunity to train some of the members of the Hill Church in La Mesa, California, with our evangelism curriculum. This is a church family who loves the Lord and wants to grow in their faithfulness to the great commission.

The next day we shared the Gospel in the surrounding areas. We had several divine conversations as we proclaimed the Gospel of our Lord through one on one conversations, tracts distribution, and open-air preaching.

I am always amazed to see our sovereign God at work when we go out to make His name famous among His creation. Two people were walking past; one took a Gospel tract, the other did not. They walked side by side about a hundred yards away. The other person ran back to take a tract; however, they would not talk but were very grateful for the tract. Another lady was so excited that we were out sharing our faith in Jesus that she came by to thank us and to share with everyone coming by that they need to listen and get right with Jesus before it was too late.

Manny and I also had a long conversation with the gentleman in the Mormon church for over fifteen years. There was a lot of abuse and hurt in his life. He started breaking down at once but was still unwilling to believe in the one true living God and the special revelation He gave us all. I will be traveling out there again in 2023 to do more training at the Hill Church; please start praying for my time with them next year. Subscribe to our YouTube channel to see this entire conversation with Bryan the Ex Mormon. Go to <https://www.youtube.com/> and type Gospel of God Ministries in the search bar.

Leaders And Districts Update

We have leaders in New Jersey, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Florida, with a potential new leader in San Diego at the beginning of next year. Just as a reminder, we are breaking the nation into six districts.

We want a leader inside of every district by the end of 2024. By the beginning of 2023, we will be halfway there with leaders in districts one, two, and five. If you know of a candidate that would be a good GGM leader fit let us know.

MARK 16:15

And he said unto them, go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.

Know Your Bible Curriculum

I have written a new curriculum called Know Your Bible. This curriculum is designed to help you become a better student of the Bible. This curriculum is geared toward those who have no formal seminary education. It will help you understand the importance of properly and systematically looking at scripture.

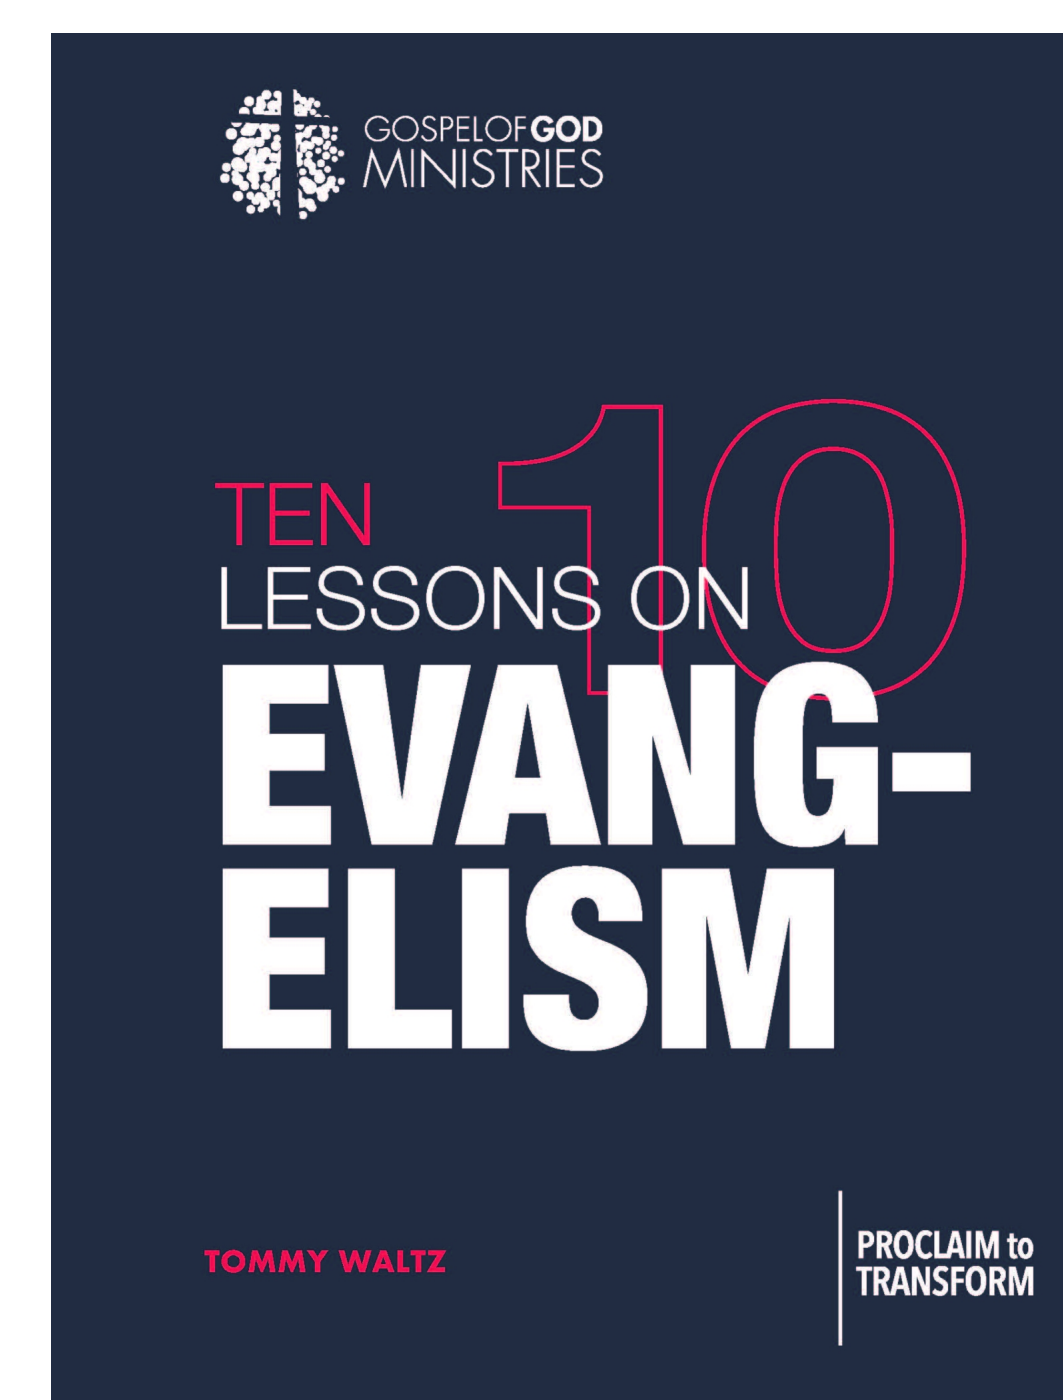

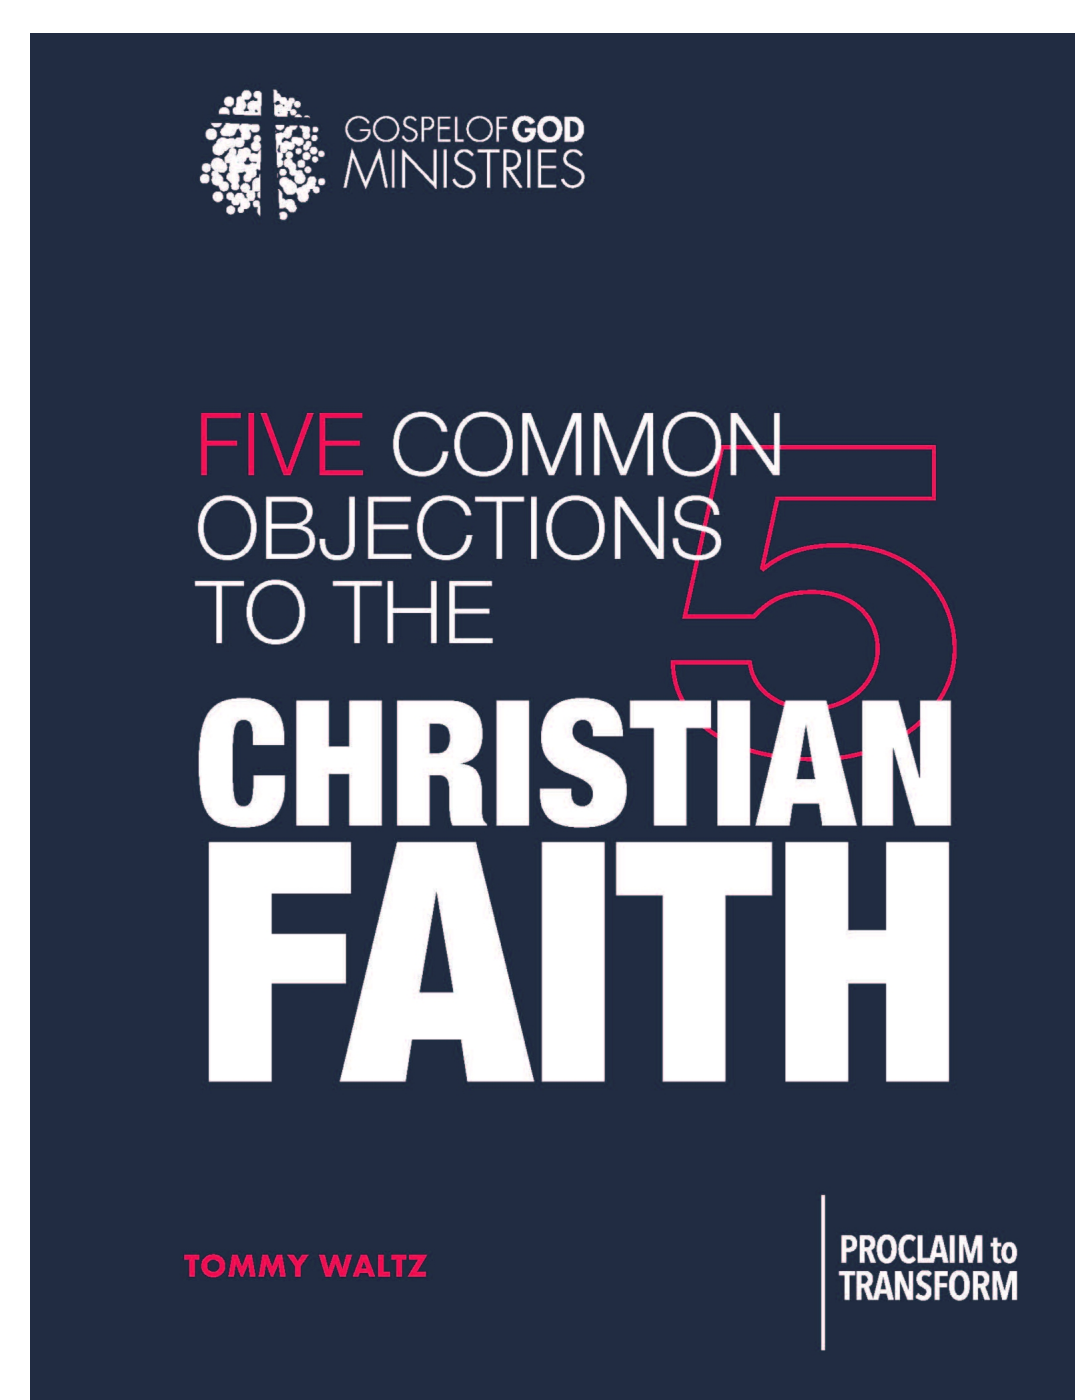

We must properly understand hermeneutics, exegesis, exposition, and homiletics. This curriculum is the Biblical answer.

My Travel In The Middle East

I will be traveling to the Middle East to encourage and train believers on how to witness Muslims. I will ask that you cover this time in prayer in three ways. Safety, those I am training would apply what they are learning, and the lost souls who will be hearing the Gospel for the first time would come to believe.

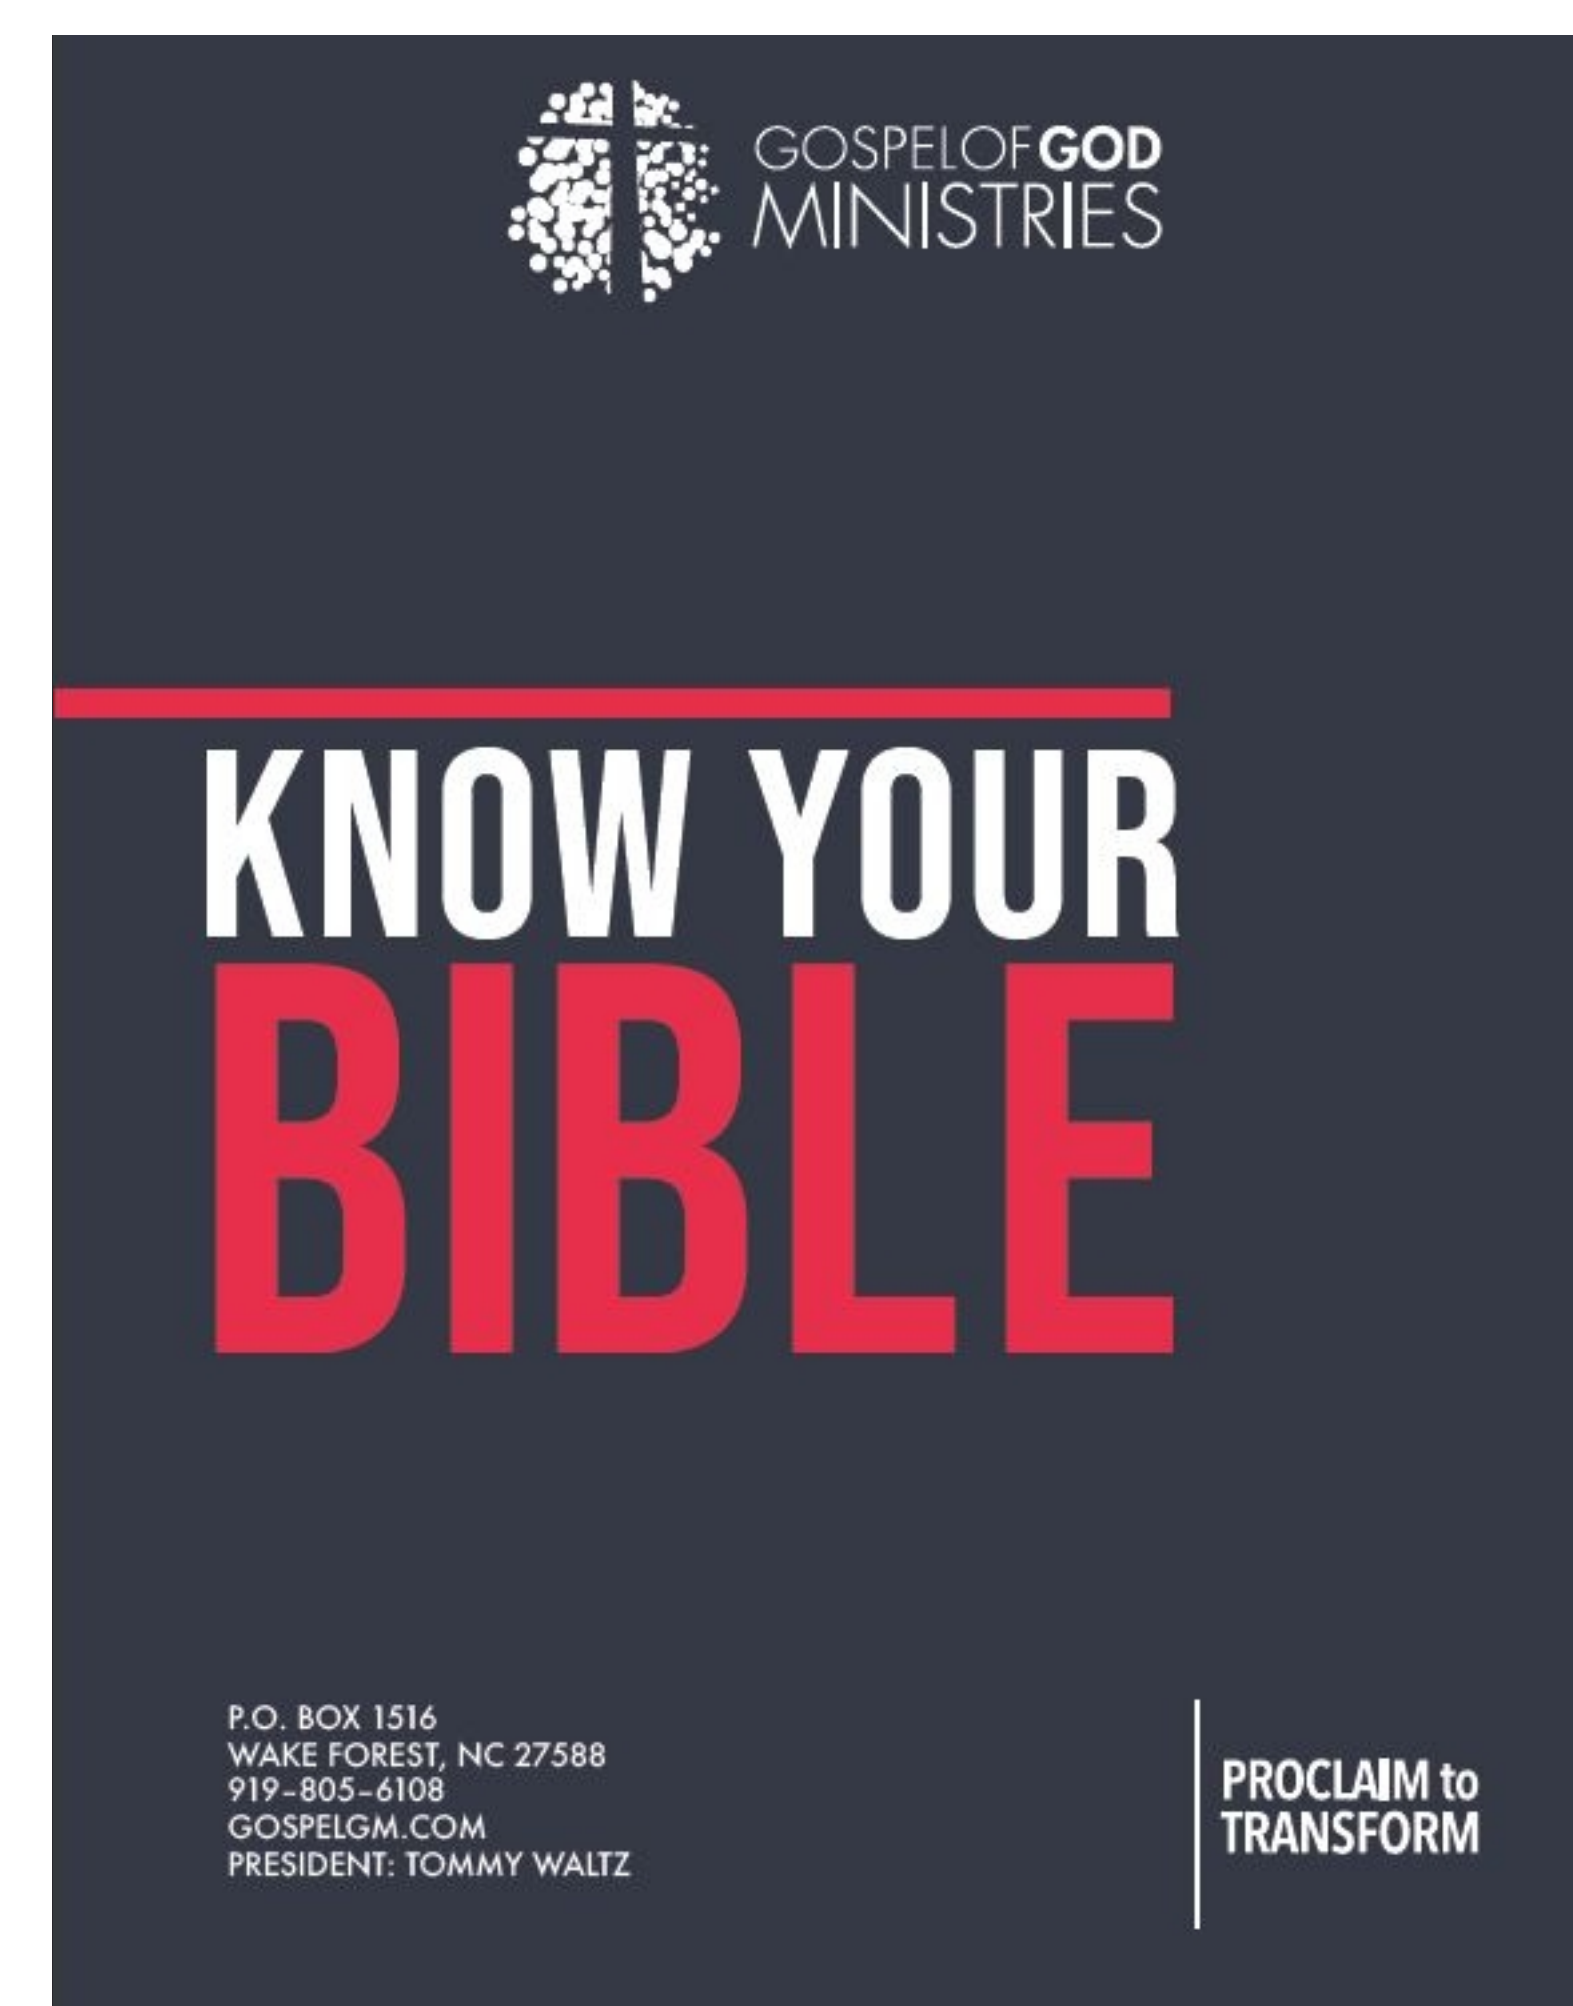

The airline travel for this trip will cost $2,100.00. If you want to give toward this trip, you can either give online at gospelgm.com by clicking the donation button or write a check to Gospel of God Ministries and send it to this address. P.O. Box 1516 Wake Forest, NC 27588.
