Harvest Field Report

What a crazy year. It feels like we are on a dead end street with no outgoing traffic. It is my hope with this newsletter that you and every one of our GGM champions and leaders would be reminded of this section of scripture.

Psalms 115:3 — “Our God is in the heavens; He does as he pleases.”

No elections, pandemic, riots, or evil has caught Him by surprise. In this newsletter, we will encourage you in three reasons why we need revival and awakening, and the reasons may not be what you think. We will also let pastor Charles Swann inform us how his church has benefited from going through two of our curriculums. We will have a brief harvest field report of what God has done through GGM this year, even as the world has been on lockdown. Thanks for taking the time to read or browse this newsletter.

Three reasons we need revival:

A revival needs to happen within the American churches. I hope that if you see any of the pressures of the culture, as discussed in this article, pushing in on you, that you will be made aware of it and continue to fight the good fight of faith. Continue on the next page....

1. We need a moral reset as a nation.

If you examine the landscape of our culture, you will see the raise of subjective opinion. What is the old saying? (“Whatever floats your boat, do it.”) Or to use the words of captain obvious, “you do you.” This is where we are at as a nation. For us to either continue to lie to ourselves or stick our head in the sand like an ostrich, hoping that this will all go away like a bad dream is not helpful.

What is the answer? One of the ways we can turn the tide on a culture going down the subjective drain is to go out and be a biblical witness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It is in the Gospel that man’s greatest need is met. The answer to why there is corruption, stealing, rioting, sex trafficking, etc. is all found in the explanation of the Gospel.

We were out witnessing on the University of South Carolina handing out the Man Tract. When we hand out the man tract, we ask one follow up question, “what do you think is wrong with mankind?” Then we just listen. People begin to speak to us without any hesitation about all the problems with mankind; however, none really has any solution to the problem.

We take the time while on campus to show them how the problems that they bring up are because of sin, and then we show them how they personally have sinned against God. Then, we unveil the glorious Gospel. Without the Gospel making us examine our condition, man is left with a drifting moral compass.

Our culture, without the Gospel and the truth of Scripture, is left to their gods and autonomous tendencies. Without the objective truth of God’s Word, we are left to the power of popular opinion and the lust of our own desires. This is slowly destroying our society.

2. We need to understand what reality is—God. (Humans don’t determine reality.)

People are continually confusing subjective opinion with the objective truth that God reveals for us to live by. Where there are pockets in our culture where society is growing and flourishing, people are instinctively living out these morals. Whenever a person is honest and works hard at a job, proving their faithfulness to their work task, they are exemplifying the unchanging attributes of God. Whenever they don’t steal and are honest, they are bearing witness that they are made in God’s image.

Jesus said, “I am the way the truth and the life no one comes to the Father except through me.” John 14:16

This is God’s reality that allows life to flourish wherever these morals and others like them—found in the Bible—are applied to everyday living. He gives us his good earth to dwell on, to use, and it testifies to His goodness. It is not only that His word and earth testify to His goodness, it is also the heavens that do the same.

We need an awakening and a revival so people can come back to reality. What do I mean? Reality starts and ends with God. The further people get away from God, the further they drift from reality, and it is our job to show the anchor for every person on planet earth. Jesus!

If no one calls them on living a lie in the false reality of their broken worldview, they will continue to live comfortably in either (1) their sin until it causes a wake of unrepairable damage, or (2) they end up in hell for eternity. Nevertheless, there is one more vital reason that I want to talk about in this article that shows we need revival and awakening that is catching a lot of us by surprise.

3. We need to be reminded what it means to be human, which is getting confused because of social media and A.I.

Social media is not real life. Participating in Artificial intelligence is not real life. However, many people are beginning to step over the threshold and are confusing reality with simulation because of the amount of time they are spending on these platforms. What it means to be truly human is to be relational creatures. Receive the rest of the article by becoming Champion Partner Brother Tommy Waltz

Pastor Charles Swann— Covenant Baptist Church

One of the hardest things to find today is someone that you can trust; to give solid teaching on Biblical Evangelism. I’m not talking about the guy who comes to your church with three ties and three sermons, and tries to evangelize the saved in your church. It is someone who will train your people to share their faith without gimmicks.

“We have prayed and asked God to lead us to someone who can do this, and by God’s grace we found him in Tommy Waltz and Gospel of God Ministries. As pastor of a growing Reformed Baptist church that has a strong desire Continue on the back page....

Proclaiming the Gospel to Transform Lives

(to reach sinners), I am thankful for Tommy and the valuable curriculum that Gospel of God offers. It is simple, yet profound enough to answer the hard questions you will face in evangelism. It is practical and clear enough that anyone can learn. I highly recommend it.

I have been pastor at Covenant Baptist for 7 years, and we have had conferences every year and the founding pastor of this church, the late Professor, Dr. Richard Belcher had two conferences each year, and our people have told us that this conference on evangelism is by far the best we have had."

Prayer Points: Leaders and families, all who have heard the gospel, and continued unity in the core doctrines of the faith.
